

The Cart: Social Story

This is called The Cart.

The Cart will be coming to school soon.

Bea and George will bring The Cart to school.

This is Bea.

This is George.

Inside The Cart are things to feel, hold, smell, see or hear.

The Cart makes sounds and music.

I can play music on The Cart.

Before the story starts, I can wash my hands in a gold bowl.

There will be rose petals and lotion.

When the story begins, I will meet Fred, a magical nightingale parrot.

Fred is a puppet that my teachers will pretend to make fly around my classroom.

My teacher will pretend that I am flying with Fred by wafting silky fans that smell of pine.

They might make me feel like I am flying by using stretchy fabric around my wrist or ankle to gently bounce or swing.

Some things that come out of The Cart will change the way my classroom looks. Like these green and blue window covers.

And these spooky trees with tassels on them.

Big umbrellas will go up that I can go under to make shadows.

My name will be sung to me
and there will be a mirror with lights all around it.

I can then celebrate with my class.

There will be upbeat music which I can dance to.

I can feel the vibrations of The Cart.

I do not have to feel, hold or smell anything I don't want to

– I can say or sign “stop”.

When it is time for The Cart to leave my school, Bea and George will come back to pick it up.

There might be a Carty Party
with music.
